FROM THE BOARD

Dear Resident/Taxpayer,

After more than 20 years of the Library conducting its own Election and Budget Vote, the Library Board has determined that these items be put forth to the electorate at the time of the School District’s Annual Meeting on May 20th. Thus, in addition to the Proposed Budget for the School District, and the election of Members of the School Board, there will be propositions regarding the Library Budget, as well as Library Trustee, on that day.

The Library Board has been considering this option for some time, finally concluding that the continuing decline in voter turnout, coupled with the increasing cost of running an election, could no longer justify a separate vote. It is the Library Board’s position that this decision is both politically and fiscally responsible. We hope you agree, and we welcome your comments, which will be considered whether they are in agreement or not.

Details on the Proposed Budget will be posted on the Library’s website and sent to you by mail after its final review by the Library Board at its April 7th meeting. I can assure you that the amount to be raised by taxes will be within the allowable tax levy (i.e. tax cap).

Each member of the Library Board encourages you to put May 20th on your calendar and to remember to vote, not only on those positions related to the Hewlett-Woodmere Schools, but also on those related to the Library.

In conclusion, our thanks to the School Board and District officials in helping to facilitate this transition.

Sincerely,
Benjamin A. Eilbott, President
Board of Trustees

JACQUES BREL RETURNS

A cabaret version of Jacques Brel is Alive and Well and Living in Paris

Sunday, May 4, 2:30 pm

Jacques Brel was a Belgian singer/composer/actor who composed sophisticated, literate, sensitive, funny, theatrical songs that attracted a devoted following in Belgium and France and then throughout the world. He recorded most of his songs in French but he became a major influence on such performers as David Bowie, Leonard Cohen, among others. His songs were recorded by pop legends such as Ray Charles, Judy Collins, John Denver, The Kingston Trio, Nina Simone, Frank Sinatra, and Andy Williams, to name a few. In French speaking countries he was a successful actor, directing two films, one of which Le Far West, was nominated for a Palm d’Or at the Cannes Film Festival, 1973.

Mr. Brel was married and had three children. A heavy smoker, he died of lung cancer at age 49 in 1978. He is buried near the artist Paul Gauguin on Hiva-Oa, Marquesas Islands (French Polynesia) an island where he spent his last years.

This show is set in the cabaret style, performing songs from the original 1968 show, with a rotating cast. The original show ran for over 4 years at the Village Gate, with original cast members Elly Stone, Mort Shuman, Shawn Elliott, and Alice Whitfield.

Original production concept, English lyrics, and additional materials by Eric Blau and Mort Shuman; Based on Jacques Brel’s lyrics and commentary; Music by Jacques Brel.
In this production, additional arrangements by Eric Svejcar; Staging by Dan Whitten, Tiger Theatricals

District residents & Friends of the Library may pick up tickets beginning Wednesday, April 23, 10 am & 7 pm.

LONG ISLAND READS 2014
This year’s choice is:
The Manor: Three Centuries at a Slave Plantation on Long Island by Mac Griswold.

In 1984, landscape historian Mac Griswold came across Sylvester Manor, the 1650s former plantation on Shelter Island that has been home to 11 generations of the Sylvester family. Ms. Griswold’s research focused on one of the earliest plantations in the North, dependent for nearly 200 years upon the labor of African slaves, Native Americans, and indentured servants. Mac Griswold charts the history of this property from 16th c. Europe to 21st century Shelter Island, where the property, still owned by descendants of the original family, operates as a non-profit educational foundation and organic farm.

ART LECTURES

With Prof. Thomas Germano

The Detroit Institute of Art

- Wednesday, April 9, 11 am*
  Founded in 1885, the DIA has been a beacon of culture for the Detroit area for well over a century. The DIAs collection is among the top six in the United States. Among the notable acquisitions included: Mexican artist Diego Rivera’s Detroit Industry fresco, which Rivera considered his most successful work, and Vincent van Gogh’s Self Portrait, the first Van Gogh painting to enter a US museum collection.

Paolo Veronese: Magnificence in Renaissance Venice

- Monday, April 28, 1 pm
  Along with Titian and Tintoretto, Veronese was one of the most important late Renaissance Venetian masters. The Wedding at Cana and Feast in The House of Levy are not only beautiful they are the largest paintings of the 16th century. Veronese was influenced by Titian and later by Tiepolo, Watteau, Peter Paul Rubens, and The Carracci.

Degas/Cassatt

- Monday, May 12, 1 pm
  Edgar Degas’s influence upon Mary Cassatt has long been acknowledged, but the extent to which Cassatt shaped Degas’s artistic production is lesser known. Degas and Cassatt were most closely allied between 1878 and 1886, and this lecture looks closely at many of the works produced by each during these eight years. They used a variety of media. A related exhibition will be at the National Gallery, Washington, DC from May 11 through October 5, 2014.

- The Holocaust in Italy
  With Stanislao Pugliese, Ph.D
  - Tuesday, April 8, 7 pm
    This is an informal discussion on the historical and cultural context of fascism, anti-Semitism, the history of Italian Jews, the German occupation, and the Holocaust in Italy. A key concern will be will be with the role of the Vatican and Pope Pius XII.
    Dr. Stanislao Pugliese is professor of modern European history and the Queensboro Unico Distinguished Professor of Italian and Italian American Studies at Hofstra University.

- Is the Bill of Rights Really Necessary?
  With James Coll
  - Thursday, April 10, 1 pm
    The Bill of Rights is the collective name for the first 10 amendments to the US Constitution. Proposed to appeal to the Anti-Federalists who were opposed to ratification of the Constitution, these amendments guarantee personal freedoms, limit Federal government power, and give power to the states. There were originally 12 but only 10 were ratified. How does the 14th amendment have a role in this? What were the other two?

- Estate Planning
  With Deborah Jacobs, Forbes Senior Editor
  - Wednesday, April 23, 1 pm
    As a journalist writing about estate planning, Ms. Jacobs has found widespread misunderstandings about fundamental concepts. This presentation will cover some of the most common areas of confusion, including: Caring for yourself; key estate planning documents, and the purpose of each; why trusts aren’t just for rich folks; The impact of planning of subsidizing adult children and grandchildren; and more!

Let’s Face the Music and Dance: The Films of Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers

- Wednesday, May 7, 1 pm
  Fellow RKO contract star Katharine Hepburn once said, “Fred gives Ginger class, and Ginger gives Fred sex.” We certainly see great chemistry in the musical films of Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers. Astaire and Rogers starred in 9 musicals and a reunion film. They advanced the genre of dance in the Hollywood musicals and helped the country pull through the Great Depression.

- Nutrition: Practical information you can use
  With Jill Mazzeo, M.S., CDN
  - Tuesday, May 27, 7 pm
    In this presentation, Ms. Mazzeo will discuss nutrition basics, the importance of vitamins, cleaning up your diet and its benefits, foods to incorporate in our diets, ADD/ADHD and nutrient deficiencies that are linked to this disorder, calcium/dairy products and osteoporosis, and if time allows, diets: the myths of fat free, etc and anti-aging nutrients.

- Famous Trials in American History
  With Don Parker, American History teacher and a member of PEIR, Hofstra University
  - Wednesday, May 28, 1 pm
    Mr. Parker will discuss two famous trials. “The Scottsboro Boys” were the notorious trials of nine black youngsters in Alabama in the 1930s. The trials led to two significant US Supreme Court decisions, which served as a prelude to civil rights decisions in the 1960s. The second trial to be discussed is “Army on Trial” which took place towards the end of World War II when enlisted men and officers were tried for abuse and flagrant punishment of American soldiers who committed crimes while in service.

A Philip Roth Retrospective
With Rabbi Bruce Ginsburg
Thursday, June 12, 7 pm
Few modern writers have been as celebrated or reviled as Philip Roth. Arguably, no contemporary can match his uninterrupted fifty-year run at producing works of provocative genius. On the occasion of his eightieth birthday and his announced retirement from writing fiction, we will explore a representative selection of his oeuvre and evaluate his contribution to American, Jewish, and world literature.
Rabbi Bruce Ginsburg is the spiritual leader of Congregation Sons of Israel in Woodmere and a past president of the Long Island Board of Rabbis. A life-long lover of narrative fiction, he earned his doctorate in Hebrew literature. This past fall, he conducted a six-week lecture series on Philip Roth’s Goodbye, Columbus and Five Short Stories.

CAR TALK!
The Most Beautiful and Unusual Cars Ever Built!
With H. Roy Jaffe, former senior stylist at General Motors
Tuesday, May 13, 1 pm and Tuesday, June 17, 1 pm
To appreciate these cars we broke this lecture into two sessions. These lectures will include over 50 pictures of these amazing cars; the vast majority of these cars having never been seen by the public. Mr. Jaffe has been collecting and photographing cars for more than 70 years. They are dynamic in styling, and many are one-of-a-kind and custom built by renowned coach makers in this country and abroad.

The Lowland
by Jhumpa Lahiri
■ Monday, April 7, 1 pm
Discussion leader:
Candace Plotsker–Herman
The Lowland is the story of two brothers, Subhash and Udayan Mitra, inseparable, but with very different futures. Udayan will join a movement to eradicate inequality and poverty, risking all for what he believes in. Subhash, does not share his brother’s political passion and leaves home for a life of scientific research in a quiet coastal area in America. Written by the Pulitzer-prize winning author of The Namesake, her latest novel is a book of great beauty and history.
“Masterly suspenseful, sweeping, piercingly intimate, The Lowland is a work of great beauty and complex emotion; an engrossing family saga and a story steeped in history that spans generations and geographies with seamless authenticity. It is Jhumpa Lahiri at the height of her considerable powers.”
—National Book Foundation

Claire of the Sea Light
by Edwidge Danticat
■ Tuesday, May 6, 11 am
(NOTE TIME AND DAY CHANGE)
Discussion leader: Ellen Getreu
Claire Limyè Lannè—Claire of the Sea Light—is an adorable child born into love and tragedy in her village in Haiti. Her mother dies in childbirth and the father visits the mother’s grave with the little girl on each of Claire’s birthdays. The father wonders whether he should give the child to the local shopkeeper, who has lost a child, so she may have a better life.
On the eve of her 7th birthday, he decides to give the child up, but she disappears. As they look for the missing child, secrets and truths of members of the community appear as they are tied to Claire and her family.
“…Claire of the Sea Light represents her [Edwidge Danticat] return to adult fiction after a hiatus of far too many years.”
—Deborah Sontag, an investigative reporter for The Times, 2011 Pulitzer prize finalist.

The Unlikely Pilgrimage of Harold Fry
by Rachel Joyce
■ Monday, June 23, 1 pm
Discussion leader:
Edna Ritzenberg
Harold Fry is retired and lives in a small English village with his wife, Maureen, and seems to irritate his wife by everything he does. One morning he receives a letter from a woman he has not seen in 20 years. Queenie Hennessy is in hospice and is writing to say goodbye. Harold decides he must deliver his response to the letter in person. He sets off lightly dressed for the 600-mile walk to the hospice where Queenie is living. He believes that as long as he is walking, Queenie lives.
“… is not just a book about lost love. It is about all the wonderful everyday things Harold discovers through the mere process of putting one foot in front of the other.”

District residents may reserve copies of the books in advance of the discussions. Review packets are available at the Information Desk.
