AFTERNOON WEEKDAY CONCERT AT THE LIBRARY

\textbf{Ken Burns’ Americana: Jacqueline Schwab in Concert}

\textbf{Mark Twain’s America: A Portrait in Music} (award winning CD)

\begin{itemize}
  \item [\textbf{Thursday, November 18, 2 pm}]
\end{itemize}

This afternoon’s concert will feature signature solo piano arrangements of popular and traditional music from Mark Twain’s era including Stephen Foster and Civil War songs, Victorian ballroom dance tunes, hymns, spirituals, and ragtime. Ms. Schwab will speak about the pieces and how they connect to our history.

\textit{In Ken Burns’ words, “Jacqueline Schwab brings more feeling and intensity to music than anyone I know. Her playing is insistent, physical, heartfelt and...unusually moving.” }Jacqueline’s latest project for Ken Burns will be his upcoming documentary on the Dust Bowl. She has also been heard on other PBS documentaries, including \textit{The Irish in America} and \textit{Ric Burns’ New York: A Documentary Film}. \textit{No tickets required.}

Orientalism & New York: A 19th Century Love Affair
With Architectural Historian, Barry Lewis, ‘Walking Tours’ of NYC on PBS
■ Sunday, November 21, 2:30 pm

Before all the battles and bitter politics, westerners had a love affair with the Middle East. In the 19th century it was seen as a Shangri-la of art, architecture, music, and crafts that, in turn, influenced the emerging modern design in the West. In New York City you can still trace the results of that love affair from the 7th Regiment Armory’s Tiffany Room to the decorative tile work and the arabesque designs built into the structures of Central Park.

District residents & Friends of the Library may pick up tickets beginning Wednesday, November 10, 10 am & 7 pm.

Co-sponsored by the Friends of the Library.

Eating Alaska

A MONTHLY AFTERNOON DISCUSSION GROUP  ■ Mondays at 1 pm
District residents may reserve copies of the books well in advance of the discussions. Review packets are available at the Information Desk.
NOTE: On November 15 we will meet at 2 pm.

The Help by Kathryn Stockett
Discussion leader: Candace Plotsker-Herman
- Monday, October 18, 1 pm
Eugenia ‘Skeeter’ Phelan returns home to Jackson, Mississippi from college in 1962, armed with a degree in English, ready to become a writer. She is advised to begin sharpening her skills on writing about what disturbs her.

“A assured and layered, full of heart and history, this one has best-seller written all over it.- Publisher’s Weekly

Cutting for Stone by Abraham Verghese
Discussion leader: Edna Ritzenberg
- Monday, November 15, 2 pm
Sister Mary Joseph Praise, a novice, pious nun leaves the south Indian state of Kerala in 1947 for a missionary post in Yemen. During the sea voyage, she saves the life of an English doctor, Thomas Stone. They meet up again at Missing Hospital in Addis Ababa. Seven years later, Sister Praise dies giving birth to twin boys: Shiva and Marion.

“T’ve not read a novel wherein medicine, the practice of it, is made as germane to the storytelling process, to the overall narrative, as the author manages to make it happen here. The medical detail is stunning, but it never overwhelms the humane and narrative aspects of this moving and ambitious novel.”- John Irving

Eva Moves the Furniture
by Margot Livesey
Discussion leader: Ellen Getreu
- Monday, December 13, 1 pm
Her father and aunt lovingly raise Eva McEwen, whose mother has died in childbirth. Eva has two ghosts, a girl and a woman, whom she calls “the companions” that only she can see. Though the “companions” are there more for her protection than to cause harm, they also seem to be able to manipulate a variety of events in her life.

“While it may take some Livesey fans by surprise, this lovely, bittersweet novel should find a warm place in their hearts.” — Barbara Love, Kingston Frontenac P.L., Ont.
