The Friends of the Library Annual Membership Drive

The Friends of the Hewlett-Woodmere Public Library take pride and pleasure in enhancing the library experience. Membership contributions come back to the community through cultural programs, concerts, children’s programs, book bags, and “gifts” to enhance the facility beyond the budgeting process. Membership also participates in advance ticket distribution days, guaranteeing you a seat for all Friends’ ticketed events such as concerts and special programs. Out-of-district supporters are welcomed! The Friends have received gift donations from members of the community to show their appreciation and support of Friends’ activities or to commemorate a lifetime milestone such as a special wedding anniversary. When considering gift giving, please consider making a gift to the Friends. A Friends’ membership makes a great gift! And it is tax deductible.

To join or purchase a gift membership, please fill out a form available at the Information Desk, Circulation, or at Friends’ programs.

What’s that Sound?
“Saw Lady”
With Natalia Paruz, saw
Jestin Pieper, piano

Affectionately known as the “Saw Lady”, Natalia Paruz has spent over a decade bringing the rare art form of playing music on a carpenter’s saw to audiences around the world. Natalia’s goal is not only to preserve the rare art form of playing music on a saw, but to also try and push it forward through the invention of better playing technique, fine-tuning the instrument, educating composers about the possibilities of composing for saw, and bringing the instrument to public awareness.

This program is made possible with funds from the Decentralization Program, a regrant program of the New York State Council on the Arts with the support of Governor Andrew Cuomo and the New York State Legislature and is administered by The Huntington Arts Council, Inc.

Tickets may be picked up beginning Wednesday, November 16, 10 am & 7 pm.

NEW TALENT/NEW IDEAS

SPECIAL FILM

Caesar and Cleopatra
A comedy by George Bernard Shaw
Starring Christopher Plummer and Nikki M. James
Directed for stage by Des McAnuff
Rated PG, 114 min.

Sunday, October 16, 2 pm

Filmed in high definition at the Stratford Shakespeare Festival, this is a witty, seductive comedy about the relationship between a veteran Roman political strategist and an enchanting Egyptian teenage queen. Caesar and Cleopatra, a play written in 1898 by George Bernard Shaw, is a fictionalized account of the relationship between Julius Caesar and Cleopatra. Now movie audiences can witness the acclaimed performance of legendary Canadian actor Christopher Plummer. The film also stars Nikki M. Hanes who later went on to receive the 2011 Tony Award for Best Featured Actress in Musical for her role as Nabulungi in The Book Of Mormon. This high quality production captures the true experience of witnessing Shaw’s celebrated play on the prestigious Stratford Festival stage.

District residents may pick up tickets beginning Wednesday, October 5, 10 am & 7 pm.

SPECIAL FILM & FILMMAKER VISIT

LOOK AT US NOW, MOTHER!

A heart-wrenching and heart-warming story of acceptance with filmmaker Gayle Kirschenbaum

Starring Gayle Kirschenbaum, Mildred Kirschenbaum
Kirschenbaum Productions, Inc.
Documentary, NR, 84 min.
- Wednesday, November 16, 2 pm

Filmmaker Gayle Kirschenbaum grew up in Woodmere and Lawrence. “My parents were very conscious of appearances, but exceedingly frugal.” she said. As her workaholic father did well financially they traded their Pontiac in for a Cadillac. Gayle’s mother, Mildred, offered her adolescent daughter a nose job, which she refused. Look At Us Now, Mother! takes a viewer along on a brave mother-daughter journey, in an effort to understand emotional abuse and whether it can ultimately be forgiven. Mildred, now 92, has had a face lift and eyelids tattooed with liner so she never has to go without makeup. She is still campaigning for the nose job for her daughter.

Home movies that are shown throughout the film, shows Mildred badgering Gayle about everything, even the fact she wasn’t born a boy. But no matter how narcissistic and abusive Mildred was, what her daughter wanted to understand was why. It is a film about understanding an abusive parent and finding a time to forgive them.
Elaine Stritch: Conversation with Jordan Roth
■ Tuesday, November 22, 7 pm
Elaine Stritch’s legendary career began as Ethel Merman’s standby in Call Me Madam. Her Broadway and West End credits include such shows as Bus Stop, Goldilocks, Sail Away, Who’s Afraid of Virginia Woolf?, Small Craft Warnings, Company, A Delicate Balance and Showboat. Ms. Stritch received a 2007 Emmy Award for her recurring guest role on NBC’s “30 Rock.” She won a Tony Award, two Drama Desk Awards as well as a 2004 Emmy Award for the Broadway production of Elaine Stritch At Liberty. In 2005, Elaine made her New York cabaret debut at The Café Carlyle where she performed regularly. In celebration of Stephen Sondheim’s 80th birthday, she debuted Elaine Stritch: Singin’ Sondheim…One Song at a Time. Ms. Stritch at the time of this interview was on Broadway in the revival of Sondheim’s A Little Night Music. Ms. Stritch died at the age of 89 in 2014. This is not a live simulcast. This is the DVD recording of a live event that happened at the 92ndStY.

The 400th Anniversary of Shakespeare’s Death
Henry V: Hero or Hypocrite?
with Prof. Maureen C. McFeely
- Wednesday, November 9, 1 pm

Is Henry V Shakespeare’s celebration of “the mirror of all Christian kings” or his portrait of a skilled politician, even a Machiavellian manipulator? By contrasting scenes from Laurence Olivier’s film about a bright, noble king to Kenneth Branagh’s film showcasing a dark, struggling leader, this presentation will focus on how Shakespeare’s language offers actors and directors choices in presenting a complex, contradictory character.

Dr. Maureen Connolly McFeely teaches Shakespeare at Hofstra University and has served as dramaturg, or literary advisor, to the annual Shakespeare Festival since 1993. She has adapted five of his plays into one-hour versions for the Drama Department’s touring company.

An Evening Discussion of “Night” by Elie Wiesel with Rabbi Bruce Ginsburg
- Thursday, November 10, 7 pm

In Nobel laureate Elie Wiesel’s memoir Night, a scholarly, pious teenager is wracked with guilt at having survived the horror of the Holocaust and the genocidal campaign that consumed his family. His memories of the nightmare world of the death camps present him with an intolerable question: how can the God he once so fervently believed in have allowed these monstrous events to occur?

TED-Ed Lessons
Why wasn’t the Bill of Rights originally in the US Constitution?
With James Coll, lecturer & NYC Detective
- Thursday, December 15, 1 pm

When you think of the US Constitution, what’s the first thing that comes to mind? Free speech? The right to bear arms? These passages are cited so often that it’s hard to imagine the document without them. But the list of freedoms known as the Bill of Rights was not in the original text and wasn’t added for three years. Why not? James Coll goes back to the origins of the Constitution to find out.

James Coll created a talk about the Bill of Rights that was transformed into a TED-Ed Lessons Worth Sharing video. We will view the short video and Mr. Coll will lead a discussion about the topic and more.

The Provider
Documentary, NR, 23 min.
Producers, Maya Cueva and Leah Galant
- Sunday, November 20, 2 pm
  Keynote Speaker: Nancy O’Keefe, Sr. VP, Health Services, Planned Parenthood of Nassau County, Inc.
  Guest Speaker: Leah Galant, Producer
  The Provider, a winner of several prestigious awards, follows traveling abortion provider, Dr. Shannon Carr, as she travels to work in Dallas, Texas to perform legal and safe abortions despite the vigorous anti-abortion stigma. In 2013, a Texas bill named House Bill Two (HB2) was passed which effectively closed down nearly two thirds of the state’s abortion clinics. These laws have become the biggest threat to women’s healthcare since before Roe vs. Wade. The Provider examines these laws by telling the stories of those most affected by them. Dr. Shannon Carr travels every week from New Mexico to Dallas to one of the few clinics remaining in Texas. When asked why she continues to provide in a very hostile environment, Dr. Carr responded, “It is the stories that drive us.”

  Leah Galant is a recent documentary studies graduate from Ithaca College in upstate New York. Leah was named one of Variety Magazine’s “110 Students to Watch in Film and Media” for their April 2015 issue.

  District residents may pick up tickets beginning Wednesday, November 9, 10 am & 7 pm.

The Invention of Wings
by Sue Monk Kidd
Discussion leader: Edna Ritzenberg
■ Monday, October 31, 2 pm
Inspired by the life of early 19th century abolitionist and suffragist, Sarah Grimke and her sister, Angelina, Ms. Kidd tells the story of two women linked together by slavery. Sarah and her ‘slave gift’ Handful (Hetty) are both intelligent, brave, and dream of a better life. Sarah would like to be a lawyer or anything other than the conventional female life at that time, and Handful would like to be free and escape the life she has been given. Their history together begins in their childhood and continues for 35 years. The story immerses you in the lives of these fascinating women as they navigate religion, family drama, slave revolts, and the abolitionist movement.
“Few characters have ever been so alive to me as Hetty and Sarah. Long after you finish this book, you’ll feel its courageous heart beating inside your own.” —Mari Malcolm, Amazon.com.

Thirteen Ways of Looking
by Colum McCann
Discussion leader: Ellen Getreu
■ Monday, December 5, 1 pm
In the first story, which is the title of the book, a retired judge reflects on his life’s work, unaware this will be his last day. A mother spending Christmas alone with her son confronts the unthinkable when he disappears while swimming off the coast near their home in Ireland. An elderly nun catches a snippet of a news report in which it is revealed that the man who once kidnapped and brutalized her is alive, masquerading as an agent of peace. These are only a few of the wonderful stories from the author of Let the Great World Spin.
“McCann is a writer of power and subtlety and beauty….The powerful title story loiters in the mind long after you’ve read it.” —Sarah Lyall, The New York Times
