LENORE KRAMER LECTURE SERIES

The Weather Show: How to Build a Storm with Traveling Science Team from The Franklin Institute, Philadelphia

Sunday, February 5, 1:30 and 3:30 pm

Lightning, twisters and hail—oh my! This dynamic show reveals the science of weather—to the extreme. Where does our weather come from, and what factors make it a sunny day or a blustery one? We’ll make a cloud, explore thunder and lightning, and even create snow. We promise a stormy ending to this show as we demonstrate the power of a tornado! Science concepts explored are: water cycle, thermodynamics, air masses, and fronts.

District residents & Friends of the Library may pick up tickets beginning Wednesday, January 25, 10 am & 7 pm in the Children's Room.

Silence is Golden!
Let’s Hear it For the Silent Films!

The Big Parade
Starring John Gilbert, Renée Adorée
151 minutes with intermission with Ben Model, pianist & composer and Philip Harwood, film historian

Sunday, March 5, 2 pm

The Big Parade is a 1925 American silent film directed by King Vidor and starring John Gilbert, Renée Adorée, Hobart Bosworth, and Claire McDowell. Adapted by Harry Behn from the play by Joseph W. Farnham and the autobiographical novel Plumes by Laurence Stallings, the film is about an idle rich boy who joins the US Army's Rainbow Division and is sent to France to fight in World War I, becomes a friend of two working class men, experiences the horrors of trench warfare, and finds love with a French girl.

District residents & Friends of the Library may pick up tickets beginning Wednesday, February 22, 10 am & 7 pm.

Friends of the Library is a co-sponsor of this program.

Herbert A. Deutsch
Lecture/performance electronic music featuring the Moog synthesizer and the Theremin
- Sunday, February 26, 2:30 pm
  Prof. Deutsch is a composer, educator, performer and Professor Emeritus of Music at Hofstra University. In 1964, he collaborated with inventor Robert A. Moog on what is now known and widely used, the Moog synthesizer. The theremin originally known as the ætherphone/etherphone, is an early electronic musical instrument controlled without physical contact by the thereminist (performer). It is named after the westernized name of its Russian inventor, Léon Theremin (Теремин), who patented the device in 1928.

Tickets may be picked up beginning Wednesday, February 15, 10 am & 7 pm.

Madeleine Albright served as the 64th Secretary of State from 1997 to 2001. Her distinguished career also includes positions on Capitol Hill, the National Security Council and as US Ambassador to the United Nations.
SPECIAL EVENT

Afternoon@theLibrary Film

Rothko’s Rooms
The Life and Works of an American Artist
Produced and Directed by David Thompson, Featuring Kate

!Rothko's Rooms Poster

Rothko, Christopher Rothko, Philip Johnson, 60 min.
- Tuesday, January 31, 2 pm

Like fellow American artist Jackson Pollock, painter Mark Rothko (1903-1970) built his reputation during the immediate post-WWII years for his broadly-scaled abstract paintings. Rothko’s chief goal lay in using the artworks, with their layered shapes, colors and textures, to elicit a spectrum of raw human emotions—from fear to anger to ecstasy to melancholia, and everything in-between.

ART LECTURE: Mark Rothko with Prof. Thomas Germano
- Wednesday, February 1, 1pm

Mark Rothko, born Markus Yakovlevich Rotkovich, September 25, 1903 - February 25, 1970), was an American painter of Russian Jewish descent. Although Rothko himself refused to adhere to any art movement, he is generally identified as an abstract expressionist. With Jackson Pollock and Willem de Kooning, he is one of the most famous postwar American artists.

See the accompanying film, Rothko’s Rooms, as part of Afternoon@the Library series, Tuesday, January 31, 1 pm.

The Wonder
by Emma Donoghue
Discussion leader: Edna Ritzenberg
Monday, February 13, 2 pm

An English nurse, brought to a small Irish village to observe what appears to be a miracle—a girl said to have survived without food for months, soon finds herself fighting to save the child’s life. Tourists flock to the cabin of eleven-year-old Anna O’Donnell, who believes herself to be living off manna from heaven, and a journalist is sent to cover the sensation. Lib Wright, a veteran of Florence Nightingale’s Crimean campaign, is hired to keep watch over the girl. A story of two strangers who transform each other’s lives, a powerful psychological thriller, and a story of love pitted against evil.

“A fable as lean and discomfiting as Anna’s dwindling body... Donoghue keeps us riveted.” —Chicago Tribune

Henna House
by Nomi Eve
Discussion leader: Candace Plotsker-Herman
Monday, April 24, 2 pm

This vivid saga begins in Yemen in 1920. Adela Damari’s parents’ health is failing as they desperately seek a future husband for their young daughter, who is in danger of becoming orphaned. With no likely marriage prospects, Adela’s situation looks dire—until she meets two cousins from faraway cities: a boy with whom she shares her most treasured secret, and a girl who introduces her to the powerful rituals of henna. Henna House is an intimate family portrait interwoven with the traditions of the Yemenite Jews and the history of the Holocaust and Israel.

“A welcome glimpse into this historical moment and little-known culture.” —Booklist

Miller’s Valley
by Anna Quindlen
Discussion leader: Ellen Getreu
Monday March 13, 2 pm

For generations the Millers have lived in Miller’s Valley. As Mimi eavesdrops on her parents and quietly observes the people around her, she discovers more and more about the toxicity of family secrets, the dangers of gossip, the flaws of marriage, the inequalities of friendship and the risks of passion, loyalty, and love. Home, as Mimi begins to realize, can be “a place where it’s just as easy to feel lost as it is to feel content.”

“Overwhelmingly moving ... In this novel, where so much is about what vanishes, there is also a deep beating heart, of what also stays.” —The New York Times Book Review
