Annual Friends of the Library Author Luncheon
in memory of Lenore Kramer
Tuesday, June 11, 11:30 am
Seawane Country Club, 1300 Club Drive, Hewlett, NY

FEATURING AUTHORS
Bridgett M. Davis and Ron Fassler

The luncheon will feature two upcoming, very different popular authors. Both will speak and sign their most recent books.

The World According to Fannie Davis:
My Mother’s Life in the Detroit Numbers
by Bridgett M. Davis

Set against the dramatic backdrop of 1960s and 70s Detroit, novelist Bridgett M. Davis’s stirring memoir tells how her ingenious mother used Detroit’s illegal lottery to support her family.

BRIDGITT M. DAVIS is a novelist, essayist, teacher, filmmaker and curator. The World According To Fannie Davis is her first nonfiction book. A graduate of Spelman College and Columbia University’s Graduate School of Journalism. Davis is Professor of Journalism and the Writing Professions at Baruch College, CUNY, where she teaches creative, film and narrative writing and is Director of the Sidney Harman Writer-in-Residence Program. Davis lives in Brooklyn.

Up in the Cheap Seats:
A Historical Memoir of Broadway
by Ron Fassler,
illustrations by Jeff York

With the goal in mind of mixing his personal story with the theatrical history of this time, Ron Fassler has been engaged for the past 4 years in conversation with many of the great artists who were either part of this era, or were sitting in the cheap seats themselves, watching it unfold just as he did. Featuring conversations with Jane Alexander, James Earl Jones, Nathan Lane, John Lithgow, Bette Midler, Mike Nichols, Stephen Sondheim, and many more. Ron is a funny, entertaining speaker who will talk about the book and update his love affair with the theater.

RON FASSLER is an American film and television actor and author. He is best known for his role as Bryan Grazer, the LAPD captain in the cult science fiction TV series Alien Nation.

No tickets will be issued. The price for the luncheon is all inclusive at $65 per person. Reservation forms will be at the Information Desk and at all Friends’ programs beginning Wednesday, April 10. Reservations should be mailed to the Friends of the Library, using the address on the form by Friday, June 7, 2019. For further information, please call Mrs. Irene Levy at 516-637-5561.

AUTHOR VISIT
Eden Mia Hoffman
Understanding Genocide
Inter-generational Abstraction and Dilution through Three Generations
Grappling with The Holocaust

□ Wednesday, May 8, 7 pm

How is the Holocaust understood by generations? During, and in the aftermath of WWII, the experience carried immediacy and traumatic meaning for the first generation of Holocaust survivors. The second generation’s perception sought to protect the legitimacy of an earlier generation’s lived reality. Now, with the third-generation, memory is further diluted, posing danger of treating it as some distant horror having lesser meaning.

Eden Mia Hoffman is a rising junior in the Gallatin School of Individualized Study. She lives in Lawrence, NY.

SPECIAL SCIENCE SHOW
LENORE KRAMER LECTURE SERIES
The Space Roadshow
With Lee Ognibene, former director of Sayville Planetarium

H-WPL Adult Summer Reading
A UNIVERSE of Stories

This is a summer reading program just for adults. We’ll share book recommendations, offer fun prizes, and have other special gifts. When you register you’ll receive some out-of-this-world items to inspire your reading. Over the summer, we ask you to read at least two books and submit your reviews of those books to us. At the end of the summer we’ll host a special event for participants and present prizes to randomly selected participants.

Registration begins Monday, June 3, 10 am.

NEXT CHAPTER BOOK CLUB
aka The Pagemasters

This book club is an inclusive book club for adults age 21 or over, who have mental disabilities. Book club members enjoy reading, socializing, and learning when they meet weekly throughout the year. The book club has entered its 4th year.

The library book club is now an affiliate of the Next Chapter Book Club, Inc. The Next Chapter Book Club (NCBC) was founded in 2002. “The purpose is to provide adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities a chance to engage in literacy, socialize and hang out in a community setting” ... a definition provided by NCBC.

In February 2019, H-WPL was awarded an ALA (American Library Association) The American Dream Literacy Initiative grant sponsored by Dollar General Literacy Foundation.

This grant will provide funds to provide reading materials, eBooks, a section for circulation of these materials to the community, software for vocabulary building, and more. For more information about the club, please contact Nadine Connors, Cultural Program Specialist, 516 374 1967 x237.

AMERICAN CRED

LENORE KRAMER LECTURE SERIES

Film: American Creed
With Professor James Coll

- Friday, May 17, 10:30 am
  Secretary of State, Condoleezza Rice and Pulitzer prize-winning historian, David M. Kennedy: moderators.
  Produced by WTTW and Citizen Film
  Rated PG, 55 min.

  We will watch the film first, and then Professor Coll will lead a discussion.

  What does it mean to be American? What holds us together in turbulent times? The stories in AMERICAN CREED are told from the points of view of unlikely activists who creatively bridge cultural, economic and/or political divides.

  From baseball manager Joe Maddon, to school principal, Deidre Prevett, acclaimed novelist Junot Diaz, Marine Sgt. Tegan Griffith, and many more from across the U.S., Rice and Kennedy lead a moving discussion of the questions at the heart of this film—what does it mean to be American today.

  District residents may register, in person, beginning Wednesday, April 17, 10 am. Class is limited to 24 persons/2 per computer.

From the Hayes Code to X-rated Movies: A History of Hollywood Censorship
With Brian Rose, Fordham University

- Thursday, May 9, 11 am
  From its very beginnings in the 1890s, motion pictures have delighted the public, and upset civic and religious authorities that felt that movies needed to be regulated to protect innocent minds and discourage immorality. The 1934 Hays Code, which set up strict rules of language and conduct for studio films lasted more than three decades. This presentation will look at 125 years of movie censorship in Hollywood.
Knitting Workshop (and some crocheting)
With Randi Raphael-Hurtado, Knitting Instructor

- Thursday, May 2, 1 pm

Discussion and demonstration of the different ways to cast on to knit; reading patterns; ways to finish projects so they look professional; seamless knitting and some of the problems with crocheting. A swatch to work with needs to be created before the class: Cast on with any size needle, 20 stitches. Pattern as follows: First row: Knit, Second row: Knit 4, Purl 12, Knit 4. Third: Knit. Continue in this pattern for 6 rows or 3 inches. A few sample swatches will be made for new knitters.

District residents may register, in person, beginning Wednesday, April 17, 10 am. Class is limited.

The Female Persuasion
by Meg Wolitzer
(2019 Long Island Reads Selection)
Discussion leader: Esther Davidson
■ Monday, April 8, 2 pm
To be admired by someone we admire—we all yearn for this.

Greer Kadetsky is a college freshman when she meets Faith Frank—dazzlingly persuasive and elegant at sixty-three, a pillar of the women’s movement for decades. Upon hearing Faith speak for the first time, Greer, happy with her boyfriend and life, is still full of a longing that she can’t quite place—feels her inner world light up.

 Uncannily timely —The New York Times

Abide with Me
by Elizabeth Strout
Discussion Leader: Candace Plotsker-Herman
■ Monday, May 13, 2 pm

Tyler Caskey loves West Annett, Maine. It is just up the road from where he was born. As a minister, he feels he has lost his calling. He struggles to find words after suffering a terrible lost. The congregation has grown impatient after being patient and kind, and question his leadership. In Tyler’s darkest hour, a startling discovery will test the humanity of his congregation, his own will, and the kinds of trials that soon will test everyone.

“Strout’s greatly anticipated second novel is an answered prayer.” —Vanity Fair

Asymmetry
by Lisa Halliday
Discussion Leader: Ellen Getreu
■ Tuesday, June 18, 10:30 am*

Asymmetry explores the many dramatic imbalances of human relationships. The first section Folly is the story of Alice, a young American editor, an aspiring novelist’s coming-of-age story. Madness is narrated by Amar, an Iraqi-American man who is detained by immigration officers as he travels to visit his brother in Kurdistan and spends the last weekend of 2008 in a holding room in Heathrow. These two different stories gain resonance as their perspective intersect and overlap.

* NOTE TIME CHANGE

The Last Watchman of Old Cairo
by Michael David Lukas
Discussion Leader: Edna Ritzenberg
■ Tuesday, July 16, 10:30 am*

Joseph, a literature student at Berkeley, is the son of a Jewish mother and a Muslim father. A mysterious package arrives on his doorstep, pulling him to untangle a mystery that binds his two families. This is a moving page-turner of novels by acclaimed storyteller Michael David Lukas.

A multigenerational tale that shines a light on the tensions that tear communities apart and the unlikely forces such a magic, forbidden love which attempt to bridge that which is divided.
